EMERGING LEADERS PROGRAM

CERTIFICATE IV IN LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT BSB40520

This program is designed for people who are developing and emerging leaders and managers in a range of enterprise and industry contexts: coordinator, leading hand or supervisor. It's intended to build on your current expertise and knowledge.

For individuals not currently in managerial roles or new to supervisor / manager roles, this program is designed to enhance their skills and knowledge, preparing them to step into leadership positions.

By leveraging existing expertise and aligning it with contemporary business practices, this program can instil the confidence needed to propel one's career forward.

This nationally recognised qualification targets aspiring leaders, equipping them with specialised knowledge to:

- Communicate effectively as a workplace leader
- Execute operational plans
- Foster innovation
- Lead productive workplace relationships and teams
- Implement customer service strategies

What you need to know about this program

How is the program delivered?

This is an online blended program. This means that you will complete your knowledge and initial skills development through online learning with specific milestones to complete along the way. You will also receive 2 x 1:1 mentoring sessions with an ALA assessor.

What is online learning?

ALA's online Portals feature world class project management learning material in digestible portions, customised to deliver content most relevant to your program.

Through ALA Percipio you will:

- access your eLearning content

Through ALA Training Portal you will:

- complete your enrolment & USI
- access your program templates & instructions
- upload business improvement documentation
- undertake and upload assessments
- receive feedback from your assessor
- track your progress
- access your training plan

What learning materials are included with this course?

Your learning materials are accessed through ALA Training Portal. These include:

- participant handbook & fact sheets
- templates
- project requirements / instructions
- eLearning content - Percipio

How is the program assessed?

During the course, you will undertake:

- online research tasks & workplace application
- portfolio of evidence
- workplace project / business improvement
- third party report
- competency conversation

Some assessments may include a component for participants to record a video on your smartphone or webcam. The requirements for these videos vary, depending on the assessment. Your assessor may also choose to provide feedback to you via video recording

What about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)?

We understand that you may already have many skills and areas of expertise that you have obtained in different ways, and these are recognised through our Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process.

ALA has developed a streamlined, online, self-evaluation RPL process for this course. The Participant Handbook, available on the ALA website and Training Portal, provides more information about our RPL process. Alternatively, you can contact an ALA project officer to discuss your RPL options.

What is the duration of the course?

The maximum duration for the program is 12 months

What will I learn?

You will learn how to communicate effectively as a workplace leader, implement an operational plan, promote innovation, lead effective workplace relationships & teams and implement customer service strategies.

Proficiency in managing projects and developing work priorities will be taught as well as skills for planning and completing your own work on time and on schedule.

What are the admission requirements for the course?

Minimum age requirements

You will need to be at least 18 years old

Education requirements

While there are no formal education entry requirements, ALA suggests you should have completed schooling to Year 10 and a minimum of one year of vocational experience, or a nationally recognised qualification at the Certificate III level or higher, or at least two years of relevant vocational experience.

English language requirements

This program requires you to read comprehensive online content, undertake a range of written assessments and engage in online discussion forums. Furthermore, the delivery mode relies on the extensive use of written communication.

As such, entry to the program requires English proficient to Year 10 level or a NRT or Trade qualification at the Certificate IV level or higher, or 2 to 5 years of work experience in a role that requires the use of written documentation and communication, or the completion of an approved English language test.

Audio-visual requirements

You will need access to software to view online videos and images. Software such as Adobe Reader, Windows Media Player, Windows Photo Viewer etc. are available as free downloads from the internet.

You will also need access to a digital video recording device and associated software to save and upload video, audio and image files to ALA Training Portal. Many mobile phones and smartphones include this technology.

What support services are available?

During your studies with ALA, you will have access to a comprehensive range of support services.

These include:

Academic support

Your experienced trainers are available in ALA Training Portal or via email to answer any questions you may have regarding the learning materials or assessments. Your program coordinator can also provide you with advice and support regarding the overall course.

Participant support

The Participant support team is your one-stop service centre for all participant administrative issues – including enrolment, change of contact details, ALA Percipio or Training Portal support, assessment results and certificate. You can access the participant support team email or phone.

Learning support

The learning support team is a dedicated team of specialists that provide you with a comprehensive induction to studying with ALA as well as specific support if you encounter learning difficulties during your studies. Learning support resources, such as writing guides, are available if required. You can access the learning support team via your trainer or ALA's support team.

Peer support

As a participant of ALA you can also access our study buddy system. This enables you to connect with other ALA participants studying your program. Participants find this is a great way to keep motivated and build lasting relationships and networks.

More information?

The Participant Handbook, available on the ALA website & Training Portal, provides more detailed information on the support services available to participants. We recommend that you read the Participant Handbook prior to enrolling with us.
